

I am very upset that my public airways are in the hands of so few private companies. I will be active in efforts to change this by allowing more individuals to own outlets in a market. I believe it is your responsibility to ensure that the airways are not misused for political purposes. Please see that Sinclair does not air a partisan political add as regular programming.